Lunch: Burritos ($10 suggested donation). Order your burrito here (Deadline is Thursday 3/17 at 3pm): <https://forms.gle/XdzTrkW9FizBx7sb6> (This is for students ONLY)

Transportation: $50 (if you haven't paid your Jazz Contributions, this will help offset the cost of the bus).

Dress code: Jazz Attire with provided ties (Jazz Band 1: Orange/Blue ties. Jazz Band 2: Blue Bow Ties)

Tickets: All tickets are SOLD OUT. Please bring a photo or copy of your COVID Vaccination Card. If you're not fully vaccinated (no booster), then you will need to bring a copy of your NEGATIVE COVID Test, no older than 3/16)

Notes from the Host:

Audiences will enter through one door in the Crocker, one door in the Semper and will enter 5156 thru the street side south door. Seating in 5156 will be limited to 100 seats including the performers.

We will be issuing souvenir buttons to students as long as they last, but entry in to events will be granted using color wrist bands. One color for audience and one color for performers. Please be aware that audience members will not be allowed in clinic room, warm up rooms or 5000 bld hallways. These areas will be restricted to staff and performers in the performance rotation. This limitation is important as in the past we have encouraged parents to follow along. THIS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED!

All students must carry their own equipment. There will be no roadies! Drummers may bring their own cymbals but must use the sets provided. We will provide congas and vibes in 5156 and the Crocker. Feel free to carry whatever auxiliary percussion you wish to bring. All vocal groups must bring their own mics, we will have cables ready to plug your mics into the sound system.

Along with drumsets, SCJF will provide guitar and bass amplifiers with cables. Cymbals will be included on all kits, so drummers don't necessarily have to bring their own. The only things they must bring are sticks and mallets, and any small hand percussion they need (bells, shakers, etc.)

We'll have vibes, congas, and timbales in the Crocker Theater and in 5156.

Sight-Reading (AFTER OUR PERFORMANCE):

••• SIGHTREADING INFORMATION ••• • Ten minutes will be allotted to sight reading. • For the first five minutes, the director may review the chart with the group. The director may note any element of the chart and may illustrate rhythms and phrasing by singing. Band members may not sing or play their parts. • The remaining five minutes are for a run-through of the chart from beginning to end, observing all repeats and without stopping unless absolutely necessary. During the run-through, the director may call out rehearsal numbers. • Adjudication criteria will include consideration of the group's age and experience. The score should be based not upon the quantity of right and wrong notes but primarily upon proper jazz phrasing and interpretation.

I would prefer that students stay the entire time, as this is a learning experience. Also, we are here to support each other (Jazz Band 2 must watch Jazz Band 1. Jazz Band 1 must watch Jazz Band 2) and watch each other's performances. Please reach out to me if you have any questions

Best regards,

Mr. Sanchez

If you want to know what is still left in your expected family fair share contribution, you can log into charms, or just email treasurer@santateramusic.com
